Hi Mike,

Sounds good. We're all good on our end. It definitely would be better to meet face to face, but this is what we have at this point. Talk to you tomorrow. Thanks for setting this up. Stan

Stan,

Ok, I am good with 2:30 MDT. Below is information to participate in a Zoom meeting. If you only want to join via phone call, just dial the number and you will connect to us. I prefer in person visits even in the office or driving across town or across the state. Right now the best alternative is a virtual meeting.

I was able to read through your entire email. Copied it over to Word file and it was 8 pages!

Look forward to our conversation,

Mike

Hi Mike,

I checked with Scott and Phil and they can be available to talk Thursday afternoon after 2:30 PM MDT. I hope you'll be able to get the two comments and the message read by then. Will you set up the call? Stan [REDACTED], Scott [REDACTED], Phil [REDACTED] Let me know if all that works. Thanks, Stan

Stan,

I had plans to set up a call with you this week. Was about to start crafting email to set that up and got your extremely long email. I have a very busy week again. Not sure if I will have time to read through the 8 pages. I wanted to give you quick update on where the Wild Sheep Working Group is with developing an Issue Statement on llamas and wild sheep and to discuss scheduling a collaborative forum with folks later this summer on the topic. My calendar is filling up fast this week. I was thinking about Thurs late morning or anytime in the afternoon.

Let me know if either of those times work for you,

Mike
